

Identifying, communicating and delivering the value of Earth Observations. A regional approach

AGENDA

08.30- 8.45 "Introduction and welcome from the organisers: Setting the scene"

Haris Kontoes GEO-CRADLE Project Coordinator, Geoff Sawyer EARSC Secretary General

08.45 - 09.30 "The importance of sustained EO activities at regional level"

- Intro presentation by Haris Kontoes

Round table discussion on different approaches, best practices and current plans around the coordination of EO activities at regional level.

Moderator: Haris Kontoes

Representatives from

Mónica Miguel Lago - EARSC

Franz Immler - EC (EuroGEOSS)

Steven Ramage - GEO Secretariat

09.30 - 10.15 "Moving from research to business"

- Intro presentation by Geoff Sawyer

Round table discussion on how to move towards the sustainable delivery of EO services and products.

Moderator: Geoff Sawyer

Representatives from

Alexia Tsouni - GEO-CRADLE Pilot experience

Nicola Pirrone - ERA-PLANET

Celestino Gomez – EARSC, GMV

Franz Immler - EC - EASME

10.15 - 10.30 Coffee Break

10.30 – 11.15 "Measuring the value in EO data and communicating it to stakeholders"

Round table discussion on ways to measure the benefits of EO and to communicate them to relevant stakeholders.

Moderator, Steve Ramage

Representatives from

Geoff Sawyer - EARSC – Sentinel Economic Benefits Study

Jonathan Ross - GeoScience Australia

Ruud Grim, Netherlands Space Office

Maddie West - GEO Secretariat

Jay Perlmann , IEEE France - Director Four Bridges

GEO WEEK 2018, KYOTO, JAPAN
Monday 29 October 2018 - 08.30-12.30, Room C1

11.15 - 12.15 “Developing the Future”

- Intro presentation by Lefteris Mamais - GEO-CRADLE Roadmap for future implementation for GEO and GEOSS

Round table discussion on ways to design long-term, high-impact actions for the uptake of GEOSS and Copernicus and facilitate interaction and collaboration between the different Regional Initiatives.

Moderator: Lefteris Mamais

Representatives from

Nuno Catarino - NEXTGEOSS

Angelica Gutierrez - AmeriGEOSS

AfriGEOSS Representative

Evangelos Gerasopoulos - Greek GEO Office

Steven Ramage - GEO Secretariat

12.15-12.30 Wrap up by Lefteris Mamais and Geoff Sawyer